TO: All Commanding Officers

FROM: Commanding Officer, Personnel and Training Bureau

SUBJECT: THE 26TH NAPOA ANNUAL LEADERSHIP TRAINING SYMPOSIUM AND EXPOSITION

The National Asian Peace Officers' Association (NAPOA) will be hosting the 26th Annual Leadership Training Symposium and Exposition in Las Vegas, at Planet Hollywood Resort and Casino, 3667 South Las Vegas Blvd, Las Vegas, Nevada, from July 15-19, 2013. The National Training Conference will offer topics that are both dynamic and compelling, concerning homeland security, domestic and transnational terrorism, national security issues, organized crime, management skills, officer safety, wellness, first line supervision, and other topics of general interest. The instructors are recognized experts or specialists in their fields and this conference will provide valuable insight on contemporary issues and trends facing law enforcement today. This conference will also give the attendees the opportunity to meet and collaborate with local, state and federal personnel from law enforcement agencies throughout the country.

Department employees who wish to participate in the NAPOA Training Conference will be afforded the opportunity to attend this conference while on-duty. However, Department employees who wish to attend the conference will be responsible for all related expenses. The Department will not be responsible for any costs other than the attendee's salary. All interested employees will need their Commanding Officer's approval and all travel authorities shall be processed through the employee's respective Division of assignment. This is a worthwhile conference and any benefit gained by the officers would only serve to benefit the Department.

If there are any questions, please contact Lieutenant Lynette Veazie, Personnel and Training Bureau, at (213) 486-7090.

APPROVED:

TERRY S. HARA, Deputy Chief
Commanding Officer
Personnel and Training Bureau

STEPHEN R. JACOBS, Deputy Chief
Chief of Staff
Office of the Chief of Police

NAPOA PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The National Asian Peace Officers' Association (NAPOA) is honored to partner with the Asian Pacific Peace Officers Association (APPOA), the Law Enforcement Association of Asian Pacifics (LEAAP), and the California Asian Peace Officers Association (CAPOA) in hosting the 26th Annual NAPOA Training Symposium and Exposition. The symposium will be held on July 15-19, 2013 at the Planet Hollywood Hotel and Resort in fabulous Las Vegas.

The theme for next year's symposium is "Commitment Through Leadership" underscoring the importance of striving to build stronger relationships with the communities we serve and represent, recruiting and mentoring new Peace Officers, preparing and supporting members in the promotional process, and working with various law enforcement leaders to increase and diversify the work force.

Please join NAPOA at the 119th Annual International Association Chiefs of Police Conference and Law Enforcement Education and Technology Exposition in San Diego, California, from September 29-October 3, 2012. NAPOA, NAAALEC, and the Pan Pacific Law Enforcement Association are participating in the exposition and hosting a reception for Police Chiefs and organizations that support NAPOA. Please stop by the NAPOA and NAAALEC booth during the conference for more information.

Respectfully,

Rudy Tai

NAPOA President
